PAINTBRUSH

Larry,
 Hell, kids & swell guy. Not to wild and not to tame.
 Lovers old to come.
 class. And this Dippy old school. Don't you better watch who you are following at night you might get yourself in trouble. Lovers no always as a friend & classmate.
 Love.

Larry,
 well here it is almost a close to our second year of high school. And the next two will fly by just as fast. Stay is good as you are now and you will always have friends. Take it easy on the girls.

a classmate

"Mary Lu"

Larry, and in
 to a swell kid in the sophomore class.
 Be good to the girl.
 Don't get too much. Sleep
 that is. Stay sober.

Best of luck

"Larry Claus"

Larry
 You a real swell kid (providing his don't rod around too much Leave alone the girls & liquor
 Good Luck
 Dick

Larry
 to a swell kid.
 Lots of luck in the future. Remember the history class.
 Yanna

Larry

To a very good friend, with lots of love in the future.

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SHAKESPEARE

Superintendent's Message

Dear Class of '58,

As the program in the theater summarizes what has gone before the opening of the play, so this, your annual pictures the final act of the prologue to your "Big Show" - the drama of life. You have done a fine job, and I am happy to have a hand in your "curtain raising."

We can think of your entire school career as the prologue to your life drama. Throughout the prologue you have all been performers, developing under the direction of your teachers and parents. You have developed admirably and I am proud of you.

Now you are about to step forth on the great stage of life to take your places in its unfolding drama. Every successful play is two-sided. There must be the active performers and producers and also the appreciative audience. Some of you will find your places among the active performers, others will share the more quiet task of evaluating, appreciating, and encouraging, but wherever life's drama takes you, you will take with you my heartiest wishes for your success.

Sincerely,

J. C. Quigg

And So Goodbye . . .

The Senior Class of 1958

Larry,
Best of luck in everything you do. Remember all the fun we've had this year and let's hope we have as much next year.

A friend
Sharon

Larry
Remember all the fun we've had in school + out. Let's have just as much fun
in the future.

Larry,
I'm not much to say just always be home from a real good. You're a real swell guy. Stay that way.
Good Luck. A classmate

Larry, let anyone
Don't let anyone
ever to do a thing
you be a thing
you're doing. I enjoy having you. I my class very much. M.R.A.

Larry-
Remember dear
old Gym class
and all our fun
with Mr. Zeller.

Stay out of trouble (impossible)
and leave the
girls alone.

Marvin

Larry,
I'm not much to
